

One convenient location for young and old

Kingsley centre on the corner of Church and Beatrix streets is situated in one of the busiest areas in the Sunnyside area.

The centre also houses one of government's entities, the department of arts and culture.

For all lunch and breakfast purposes, Kingsley has a variety of restaurants to choose from, such as Wimpy, which offers a good breakfast while viewing the sun international hotel opposite the street.

For all those tramazini fans, Maxi's is the ideal restaurant to visit and enjoy delectable grilled burgers and fries.

As far as banking is concerned, there is no need to go further because an Absa bank and ATMs are available for all your banking needs, at one station.

AMC Cookware offers great stainless steel cookware, from pots to frying pans, toasters, cutlery, kettles and many more products.

While waiting for take-aways, you can shop around for furniture at two of the longest existing furniture stores, Joshua Door and Morkels for the latest decor trends as far as furniture is concerned.

For an affordable meal pop into Kentucky Fried Chicken for the freshest, crispiest chicken meals.

Kingsley centre also consists of businesses that offer services such as Credit Solution for all your financial needs, internet services made up of sales, repairs, public phones and fax facilities.

Lady and Ethnic Hair Salon is all men and women need for their hair therapy.

Just in case you forget about that anniversary or birthday, step into the Promotional Items shop for tailor made gifts.

Kingsley centre has a variety of goods and services to offer young and old in one convenient location.

Kingsley centre is a must see as it is clean and quiet. It is one place that you would want to come back to it since it has great service and young and old can enjoy it.
